

Welcome to the #YouToo? survey

Thank you for accepting our invitation to participate in the #YouToo? survey.

Please note the unique entry code on your letter of invitation: _____

Components of the questionnaire

These are the topics covered in this questionnaire. You will be able to indicate whether you want to respond to a specific part, or not:

- Equality and inequality
- On the street
- At work
- In the media
- At home and in your relationship
- Appearance and sexuality
- Contacting the police
- About you

You may skip the parts of the questionnaire that you are less interested in. Even a partly filled in questionnaire is useful for our research, however, we clearly would appreciate if you could fill in as much as possible.

Equality and inequality

This part of the questionnaire deals with how you feel about equality and inequality between women and men. An honest answer is a good answer.

Q1. Which of the following statements is closest to your opinion?

Only one answer is possible. Indicate the answer that suits you best:

Women and men are equal.
Women and men are different, but of equal value.
Women and men each have their own qualities.
Women are better than men.
Men are better than women.
I don't know.

Q2. Do you agree with the following statements? Your opinion is what matters.

Always indicate the answer that suits you the most:

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know
It is important that there are equal opportunities in our society.
There's too much fuss about equal opportunities.
Some people are forgotten when it comes to equal opportunities.
Many people do not seize their opportunities. That is the cause of the inequality.
In nature, the law of the jungle also applies. That's just how things are.
There are far more important problems in our society than inequality between women and men.
More equality is also good for men.
Inequality persists because the people who benefit from it do not want to give up their privileges.
Men also have a hard time these days.
Talented women do not allow themselves to be held back by so-called unequal opportunities.
It is high time that Belgium had a woman as Prime Minister.

Q3. Do you agree with the following statements? Your opinion is what matters.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know
Women and men must earn the same for the same job.
Women and men must take on an equal share of household chores within a family.
Fathers and mothers must share the care and upbringing of children equally.
How tasks are divided within a family is nobody else's business.
Due to their different upbringings, most men behave differently than most women.
Men can be feminists.

Q4. Do you agree with the following statements? Your opinion is what matters.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know
Women and men are equally capable of leading.
Women and men are equally capable of taking care of someone.
Women and men are equally capable of carrying out heavy physical work.
Women and men are equally capable of being patient with difficult customers, or patients.
Women and men are equally capable in science.
Women and men are equally capable when it comes to making art.
Women and men show an equal aptitude for becoming the best at something.

Q5. Do you ever make a distinction between women and men yourself? For which of the following professions would you prefer a woman or a man? We are interested in your personal preference.

	It makes no difference.	I prefer a man	I prefer a woman	I don't know
GP
Plumber
Cleaning help in the house
Primary school teacher
Physiotherapist
Judge
News presenter
Prime Minister
Mayor
Nurse
Psychiatrist
Police officer
Firefighter
First responder
Hairdresser
Masseur
Your immediate colleague
Your boss

Q6. To what extent do the following statements apply to you? The questions are about your own feelings.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know	I prefer not to answer
I feel safer if order is maintained by men.
I feel safer when a woman takes care of me.
I feel more comfortable in the company of women than in the company of men.
I'm a feminist.
I feel more comfortable in the company of men than in the company of women.
I am against discrimination.
For me it's important to be beautiful.
For me it's important to be able to take care of myself in life.
For me it is important to be strong physically and mentally.
For me it's important to be healthy.
I try to respect everyone, whatever kind of person they are.
I do not distinguish between women and men.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know	I prefer not to answer
I have ever had the feeling that I was treated less well because of my gender.

Q7. To what extent do the following statements apply to you? The questions are about your own feelings.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know	I prefer not to answer
I feel that society is generally fair and just.
I usually feel that I can solve problems.
When I need help, I usually find it.
I often feel that there is no place for people like me in society.

Q8. Would you like to say something else about equality and inequality between women and men?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

No

On the street

This part of the questionnaire is about your experiences on the street, but also in other public places, such as on public transport, in shops, municipal buildings, etc.

Rules of conduct

The questions that follow are about how you think people should behave on the street. Questions are asked about four situations, each time a distinction is made by the gender of the people interacting. It's about people who don't know each other.

Q9. What do you think should be allowed on the street? To what extent do you think the following behaviour is acceptable of an unknown man towards an unknown woman?

	No problem at all	Rather acceptable	Rather unacceptable	Not acceptable at all	I don't know
An unknown man...
addresses an unknown woman.
holds the door open for an unknown woman.
wolf-whistles at an unknown woman.
makes a sexually explicit remark about an unknown woman's appearance.
puts an arm around the shoulder of an unknown woman.

Q10. What do you think should be allowed on the street? To what extent do you think the following behaviour is acceptable of an unknown woman towards an unknown man?

	No problem at all	Rather acceptable	Rather unacceptable	Not acceptable at all	I don't know
An unknown woman...
addresses an unknown man.
holds the door open for an unknown man.
wolf-whistles at an unknown man.
makes a sexually explicit remark about an unknown man's appearance.
puts an arm around an unknown man's shoulder.

Q11. What do you think should be allowed on the street? To what extent do you think the following behaviour is acceptable of an unknown man towards an unknown man?

	No problem at all	Rather acceptable	Rather unacceptable	Not acceptable at all	I don't know
An unknown man...
addresses an unknown man.
holds the door open for an unknown man.
wolf-whistles at an unknown man.
makes a sexually explicit remark about an unknown man's appearance.
puts an arm around an unknown man's shoulder.

Q12. What do you think should be allowed on the street? To what extent do you think the following behaviour is acceptable of an unknown female towards an unknown female?

	No problem at all	Rather acceptable	Rather unacceptable	Not acceptable at all	I don't know
An unknown woman...
addresses an unknown woman.
holds the door open for an unknown woman.
wolf-whistles at an unknown woman.
makes a sexually explicit remark about an unknown woman's appearance.
puts an arm around the shoulder of an unknown woman.

Q13. Now consider how you would feel if a stranger approached you on the street. Would you feel more comfortable if the person looks more like you? Would you feel more comfortable if the person...

	Yes, rather	No, that doesn't make any difference	I've never thought about that	I don't know is the same sex as you?
is about the same age as you?

	Yes, rather	No, that doesn't make any difference	I've never thought about that	I don't know is about as handsome (or ugly) as you are?
has the same skin colour as you?
has about the same clothing style as you?
speaks the same language as you?
is about as rich (or poor) as you are?

Q14. Would you like to say anything else about what you think should and shouldn't be allowed on the street between people who don't know each other?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Insults and swear words

The questions that follow are about being sworn at or insulted on the street or in any other public place, such as on public transport, in shops, in a municipal building, etc.

Whether you knew the person or persons is irrelevant here.

Q15. Has it ever happened before that you have been insulted, or called names by someone on the street, or in any other public place? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

- Yes, less than a year ago
- Yes, more than a year ago >> Skip next question and go to question Q17
- No, that has never happened before >> Skip the following questions, and go to question Q21
- I don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q21

Q16. How many times has this happened in the last 12 months?

- Once
- A few times
- Monthly, or almost monthly
- Weekly, or almost weekly
- Daily, or almost daily
- I don't know

Q17. When you think of the worst time you were called names or insulted on the street or in a public place, did you know the person or people who did it at the time?

- They were completely unknown to me.
- I knew who they were without knowing them personally.
- They were neighbours of mine.
- They were acquaintances of mine.
- They were relatives or friends of mine.
- It was my partner or ex-partner.
- I don't remember.

Q18. When you think of the worst time you were called names or insulted on the street or in a public place, was the person or people who did it...

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

- A woman
- Two or more women
- A man
- Two or more men
- A youngster
- Two or more young people
- I don't remember.

Q19. Did the perpetrator, or the perpetrators, have any other notable features?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No
- I don't remember.

Q20. Which insults have ever been used against you, or which names have you been called on the street, or in a public place?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible. If you've been called names more than once, you can write that down here too.

- I don't remember.

Q21. It sometimes happens that people on the street or in another public place want to humiliate someone as a woman or as a man and therefore call them names, make obscene gestures, become rude, behave aggressively...

Have you ever had the impression that someone wanted to humiliate you as a woman, or target you for being a woman?

- Yes
- No >> Skip question Q22
- I don't know >> Skip question Q22
- Not applicable >> Skip question Q22

Have you ever had the impression that someone wanted to humiliate you as a man, or target you for being a man?

- Yes
- No >> Skip question Q22
- I don't know >> Skip question Q22
- Not applicable >> Skip question Q22

Q22. Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

- Less than a year ago
- More than a year ago
- I don't know

Q23. Have you ever called someone names or insulted anyone on the street, on public transport or any other public place? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago? Try to answer as honestly as possible.

- Yes, less than a year ago
- Yes, more than a year ago
- No, that's never happened before >> Skip the next question
- I don't know >> Skip the next question

Q24. What names have you ever called someone on the street, or in a public place? Or which insults have you ever used against someone?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible. If you do this more often, you can mention this here.

- I don't remember.

Other experiences of violence

The following questions deal with other experiences of violence on the street or in another public place, such as on public transport, in hops, in a municipal building, etc.

Whether you knew the person or persons is irrelevant here.

Q25. Have you ever experienced any of the following on the street, or in any other public place? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know
Someone was following you.
Someone took something from you by force, or tried to take something from you (money, handbag, laptop, jewellery, etc.).
Someone deliberately damaged your possessions.
Someone hit you.
Someone threatened you with a weapon (knife, stick, firearm, etc.).

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know
Someone tried to kill you.
Someone touched you intimately against your will.
Someone forced you to have sexual relations against your will (i.e. raped you).
Another experience of violence

For you, another experience of violence means: _____

If you did not answer once Yes, skip the next questions, and go to next block, to question Q36.

Q26. When you think of the worst thing you've ever experienced on the street or in a public place, did you know the perpetrator or the perpetrators at the time?

- They were completely unknown to me.
- I knew who they were without knowing them personally.
- They were neighbours of mine.
- They were acquaintances of mine.
- They were relatives or friends of mine.
- It was my partner or ex-partner.
- I don't remember.

Q27. If you think of the worst thing you've ever experienced on the street or in a public place, was the perpetrator or one of the perpetrators at the time...

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

- A woman
- Two or more women
- A man
- Two or more men
- A youngster
- Two or more young people
- I don't remember.

Q28. Did the perpetrator or perpetrators have any other notable features?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

--

- No
- I don't remember.

Q29. If you think of the worst thing you've ever experienced on the street or in a public place, how did you react to this incident?

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

I tried to ignore the perpetrator(s).
I dismissed it with a joke.
I started a discussion with the perpetrator(s) about his/her/their behaviour.
I hit back.
I insulted the perpetrator(s).
I negotiated with the perpetrator(s).
I ran away.
I did something weird to distract him/her/them.
I made a lot of noise to attract the attention of passers-by.
I sought help.
I tried to calm the perpetrator(s) by talking to him/her/them.
I clearly indicated that their behaviour was unacceptable.
In another way.
I don't remember.
I haven't had any of these experiences.

For you, in another way means: _____

Q30. When you think back to the worst thing you've ever experienced with violence on the street or in a public place, can you remember how you felt at the time?

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

I felt powerless.
I was angry.
I was furious.
I was offended.
I was surprised.
I was scared.
I was panicking.
I was worried about the safety of others.
I wanted to get out of there as soon as possible.
Something else
I don't remember.
I haven't had any of these experiences.

For you, something else means: _____

Q31. When you think back to the worst violence you've ever experienced on the street or in a public place, how long ago was it?

- Less than one year
- More than one year, but less than 3 years
- More than 3 years, but less than 10 years
- More than 10 years

Q32. Since then, have you been avoiding certain places, or situations, because you don't feel safe anymore?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q33. It sometimes happens that people on the street or in another public place physically attack someone and want to target them physically to humiliate them as women or men.

Have you ever had the impression that someone physically attacked you, to humiliate you as a woman, or to target you for being a woman?

- Yes
- No >> Skip question Q34
- I don't know >> Skip question Q34
- Not applicable >> Skip question Q34

Have you ever had the impression that someone physically attacked you, to humiliate you as a man, or to target you for being a man?

- Yes
- No >> Skip question Q34
- I don't know >> Skip question Q34
- Not applicable >> Skip question Q34

Q34. Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

- Less than a year ago
- More than a year ago
- I don't know

Q35. Would you like to say anything else about your experiences with violence on the street or in other public places?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible. If you've been confronted with violence on the street more than once, you can mention that here as well.

No

At work

This part of the questionnaire is about your experiences at work. The questions are about your current work. If you're not working, it's about the last place you worked. If you have more than one job, you can choose the most important one. If you've never worked, you should skip this block.

Even if you prefer not to answer these questions, we would still appreciate an answer to questions Q36 and Q37.

Q36. Do you have a job at the moment?

- Yes >> Skip the next question, go to question Q38
- No, but I've worked before. >> Go to question Q37
- No, I've never worked before. >> Skip the following questions, go to the next part of the questionnaire, to question Q64
- I don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to the next part of the questionnaire, to question Q64

Q37. How long has it been since you last worked?

- Less than 6 months
- More than 6 months, but less than 1 year
- More than 1 year, but less than 2 years
- More than 2 years, but less than 5 years
- More than 5 years, but less than 10 years
- More than 10 years
- I don't know

Your work situation or your last work situation

Q38. Do you or did you love your work?

Indicate a number from 0 to 10. '0' stands for not at all and '10' for very much. Indicate the number that suits you best:

Not at all										Very much	I don't know
0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Q39. How satisfied are/were you with the following things at work?

	Completely satisfied	Somewhat satisfied	Somewhat dissatisfied	Totally dissatisfied	I don't know	Not applicable
Your wages, what you earn

	Completely satisfied	Somewhat satisfied	Somewhat dissatisfied	Totally dissatisfied	I don't know	Not applicable
Dealing with your colleagues
Dealing with your immediate superior
Dealing with your customers, your clients, your pupils, or your patients, etc.
Your career opportunities
Your work environment
The atmosphere at work
The possibility of proving yourself
The flexibility
Balance between work and private life
What you help/helped to achieve, the social interest, the product or the result

Q40. Is/was your immediate superior:

- A woman
- A man
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q41. Are/were your colleagues:

- Only men
- More men than women
- About as many men as women
- More women than men
- Only women
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q42. Are/were the people you are/have been dealing with at work (your customers, clients, pupils, or patients, etc.):

- Only men
- More men than women
- About as many men as women
- More women than men
- Only women
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q43. Do you or did you manage others at work? How many people?

- No
- Yes, 1 to 5 people
- Yes, 6 to 10 people
- Yes, 11 to 50 people
- Yes, more than 50 people
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q44. Are you working, or did you work, full-time or part-time? If you have/had more than one job, you may add up the hours.

- Full-time
- Part-time

Q45. In which sector do/did you work?

Select the sector that best suits your current work. If you have more than one job, you can choose the most important one. If you don't work anymore, it's about your last job.

- Education
- Health and welfare services
- Wholesale and retail trade
- Accommodation and food service activities (hotels, restaurants, cafés)
- Banks and the financial sector
- Justice, defence, police and public security
- Public administration
- Media and information
- Post and telecommunications
- Pharmaceutical and chemical industry
- Manufacture of food products
- Construction
- Transport
- Agriculture and fisheries
- Cleaning
- Other industry
- Other services
- Other
- I don't know
- Not applicable

For you, 'Other' means: _____

Q46. What are/were the terms of your employment?

- Permanent contract
- Statutory civil servant
- Temporary contract
- Interim

Q47. Is/was there a trade union representative in your company?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Rules of conduct

The next question is about how people at work should interact with each other according to you. Sometimes colleagues become friends. That's not what this is about. This concerns people you only spend time with at work. A distinction is made between colleagues and superiors.

Q48. What do you need to feel respected at work? To what extent are the following behaviours of colleagues acceptable to you at work?

There are four possible answers: either it is a very clear yes ('no problem at all'), a very clear no ('not acceptable at all'), or it just depends. In that case, we will make a distinction between whether you yourself must indicate whether something is permissible, or whether the other person must first ask permission in your opinion.

	No problem at all	It's OK, unless I say it isn't	It's only OK if the other person has first asked me whether it's OK with me	Not acceptable at all	I don't know
A colleague who addresses you with nicknames ('sweetheart', 'dear', 'darling', etc.)
A colleague who asks you personal questions about your relationship and family life.
A colleague who compliments you on your appearance.
A colleague who touches your shoulder.
A colleague who makes a sexual proposition.

Q49. What do you need to feel respected at work? To what extent are the following behaviours of a manager acceptable to you at work?

There are four possible answers: either it is a very clear yes ('no problem at all'), a very clear no ('not acceptable at all'), or it just depends. In that case, we will make a distinction between whether you yourself must indicate whether something is permissible, or whether the other person must first ask permission in your opinion.

	No problem at all	It's OK, unless I say it isn't	It's only OK if the manager has first asked me whether it's OK with me.	Not acceptable at all	I don't know
A manager who addresses you with nicknames ('sweetheart', 'dear', 'darling', etc.)
A manager who asks you personal questions about your relationship and family life.
A manager who compliments you on your appearance.
A manager who touches your shoulder.
A manager making a sexual proposition.

Q50. How often do you experience jokes at work as inappropriate or disturbing?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- Not applicable
- I don't know

Q51. How often do you feel personally hurt or attacked by the jokes that are made at work?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- Not applicable
- I don't know

Q52. How often would you describe the jokes made at work as 'sexist'?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- Not applicable
- I don't know

Q53. Would you like to say anything else about what you think should and shouldn't be allowed at work?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Experiences

The following questions are about things you can experience at work. Men can experience them as well as women. If it isn't mentioned, it doesn't matter whether the behaviour is that of a colleague, a manager, or a customer. Try to answer as honestly as possible.

Q54. What is the atmosphere like where you work? Have you ever experienced any of the following where you work? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
Someone called you names.
Someone said something negative about women in general.
Someone said something negative about men in general.
Someone told a dirty joke.

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
Someone threatened you.
Someone humiliated you in public.
Someone hit you.

Q55. Do you ever get pigeon-holed or treated stereotypically at work because of your gender? Have you ever experienced any of the following where you work? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
Someone made assumptions about your ambition or interests based on your gender.
Someone made assumptions about how important family is to you based on your gender.
You were overlooked or skipped for promotion because of your gender.
You were excluded from important decisions based on your gender.
You weren't welcome somewhere because of your gender.
You were expected to take on so-called 'female' tasks outside your job description, because of your gender (cleaning up, making coffee, taking care of a sick or depressed colleague).
You were expected to take on so-called 'male' tasks outside your job description, because of your gender (lifting heavy things, defending someone, representing others, reprimanding someone).
A certain task was dismissed as 'women's work' or 'men's work'.
Someone assumed you had a lower position based on your gender.
Someone assumed you had a higher position based on your gender.

Q56. How is appearance and physicality dealt with where you work? Have you ever experienced any of the following where you work? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
Someone commented on your body, or weight.
Someone commented on your clothing, or style.
Different dress codes apply for men as for women.
Someone told you that you were hired for your looks, not for your qualities.
People laughed about menstruation.
You had to change in front of people you didn't feel comfortable with.
You were expected to flirt with customers.
You were touched in an intimate manner by an executive, or client.
You were expected to have sexual relations with a supervisor or client.

Q57. How is the work-life balance dealt with where you work? Have you ever experienced any of the following where you work? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
You were asked about your family situation in a job interview.
You were asked about whether you wanted children in a job interview.
You were fired because you had a child.
You were seen as less ambitious, because you (temporarily) worked fewer hours because of your family or relatives.
You didn't get a time credit or a career break when you asked for it.
You didn't get a flexible working arrangement when you asked for it.
You were asked how you were managing combining a family with your job, when it should have been about your performance at work.

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
Your needs in terms of reconciling work and private life were not respected.
You were asked why you didn't have children.
You were asked why you didn't have a partner.
Someone commented on your relationship.
Someone commented on your children.
People assumed you had a partner, who you were expected to bring along to employee gatherings.
People made assumptions or insinuations about your sexual orientation.
People made assumptions or insinuations about your gender identity (being transgender).

Q58. How are stereotypes about women and men dealt with where you work? Have you ever experienced any of the following where you work? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	Not applicable	I don't know
What you said was only believed when someone else confirmed it.
Someone explained something to you even though you already knew it because of your position.
You were systematically interrupted at meetings.
Your vision or opinion was not taken into account.
You were told that you were too bossy.
You were told that you were too compliant.
You were told that you were too emotional.

Q59. Did anything else happen at work that you experienced as inappropriate, humiliating, stereotyping, or an invasion of your privacy, your physical integrity, or your personality?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No
- I don't know

Q60. Has the subject of sexism ever been raised at work in meetings, in service announcements or in management communication?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q61. Has the issue of sexual harassment ever been raised at work, in meetings, in service announcements or in management communications?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q62. Is there an equal opportunities plan for women and men where you work?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q63. Would you like to say anything else about sexism, or inequality between women and men in the workplace?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

No

In the media

This part of the questionnaire is about how you experience messages about women and men in the media. It's about how it feels to you. An honest answer is a good answer.

The following topics will be discussed:

- Advertisement
- Social media

Advertisement

In advertising, an ideal world is often presented. As a result, advertising very easily contains stereotypical images of women and men and unspoken value judgements.

Q64. How often do you experience advertising in general as problematic?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q65. How often do you experience the way in which women or girls are presented in advertising as problematic or one-sided?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q66. How often do you experience the way men or boys are presented in advertising as problematic or one-sided?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q67. How often do you experience the way in which families or couples are presented in advertising as problematic or one-sided?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q68. To what extent do you experience the following in advertising as problematic? If you don't think the statements are correct, you can indicate that too.

	I experience this as:				I don't think it is	I don't know
	Very problematic	Slightly problematic	Not really problematic	Not at all problematic
Bare bodies that only serve to attract attention.
Sex that only serves to attract attention.
Violence that is presented as normal.
Sexual violence that is presented as normal.
Almost only very beautiful and healthy people are depicted.
Almost only white people are depicted.
Almost only heterosexual couples are depicted.
Men are almost always portrayed as active and confident.
Women are almost always portrayed as passive and helpless.
Another thing that you experience as problematic:

Something else that you experience as problematic to you: _____

Q69. Would you like to say something about the way in which women and men are presented in advertising?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Social media

Social media also constitute a kind of public space, where people can meet and interact with each other in a pleasant, or unpleasant way. Examples of social media are Facebook, WhatsApp, Instagram, YouTube, Tumblr, Pinterest, etc.

If you don't ever use social media, you can skip these questions. Go to question Q82.

Q70. How often do you use social media?

- Several times a day
- Daily, or almost daily
- At least once a week
- At least once a month
- Occasionally
- Never >> Skip questions, move to next block
- I don't know.

Q71. Sometimes people use social media to systematically hurt or belittle other people. This is also called 'cyberbullying'.

Have you ever been the victim of social media harassment? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago? Whether you knew the person or persons is irrelevant here.

- Yes, less than a year ago
- Yes, more than a year ago >> Skip the next question, and go to question Q73
- No, that has never happened before >> Skip the following questions, and go to question Q77
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q77

Q72. How many times has this happened in the last 12 months?

- Once
- A few times
- Almost monthly
- Almost weekly
- Almost daily
- I don't know

Q73. When you think back to the worst thing you've ever experienced on social media, did you know the perpetrator or perpetrators back then?

- It was impossible to say who the perpetrator was, or who the perpetrators were. >> Skip the following questions, and go to Q76
- They were completely unknown to me.
- I knew who they were without knowing them personally.
- They were acquaintances of mine.
- They were relatives or friends of mine.
- It was my partner or ex-partner.
- I don't remember.

Q74. When you think back to the worst thing you've ever experienced on social media, was the perpetrator or one of the perpetrators at the time...

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

- A woman
- Two or more women
- A man
- Two or more men
- A youngster
- Two or more young people
- I don't remember.

Q75. Did the perpetrator or perpetrators have any other notable features?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Q76. Can you explain what types of things you've experienced regarding harassment on social media?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible. If it concerns several incidents you can also mention them here.

- I'd rather not.
- I don't remember.

Q77. Sometimes people on social media get attacked because they are a woman, or a man, with the intention of humiliating them because of their gender.

Have you ever had the impression that someone attacked you on social media, to humiliate you as a woman, or to target you for being a woman?

- Yes
- No >> Skip question Q78
- I don't know >> Skip question Q78
- Not applicable >> Skip question Q78

Have you ever had the impression that someone attacked you on social media, to humiliate you as a man, or to target you for being a man?

- Yes
- No >> Skip question Q78
- I don't know >> Skip question Q78
- Not applicable >> Skip question Q78

Q78. Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

- Less than a year ago
- More than a year ago
- I don't know

Q79. Have you ever been mean to anyone on social media yourself? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago? Whether you knew the person or persons is irrelevant here. Try to answer as honestly as possible.

- Yes, less than a year ago
- Yes, more than a year ago
- No, that's never happened before >> Skip the next questions and go to the next block
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions and go to the next block

Q80. Who was the target of your last attack?

- No one in particular, it was a general post.
- A famous woman
- A famous man
- An annoying group of women.
- An annoying group of men.
- An annoying fan club, or movement.
- A woman I knew personally.
- A man I knew personally.
- My partner
- My ex-partner.
- I don't remember.

Q81. Can you explain what you did on social media to hurt someone?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible. If you do this more often, you can mention this here.

- I don't remember.

At home and in your relationship

This part of the questionnaire is about your experiences at home, within your family and within your relationship. It concerns your current social situation and your current or former partner. You can also answer these questions if you live alone.

Views

Q82. To what extent do you agree with the following statements? Your opinion is what matters.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know
It's important to always be honest with your partner.
If you're in a long-term relationship, it's OK to check where the other person has been.
If you're in a long-term relationship, it's OK to check each other's emails and text messages.
New partners also have some kind of parental authority over the children.
You have to have a paid job in order to prove yourself.
Doing housework properly is also a valuable life choice.
If no agreements are made between partners, the housework should be done by the woman.
Domestic work must be divided equally within a family.
Children mainly need a mother.
Men can cry.
Women are more emotional than men.
If your partner needs sex, you should better give it to him/her.
In every good relationship, someone gets smacked now and then.
It's good if a father takes parental leave to be with his kids.

Distribution of care tasks

Q83. To what extent do the following statements apply to you? The questions are about your own feelings.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know	Not applicable
I regularly worry about the welfare of my family members.
I often feel like I'm the one who has to make sure everything works out.
I often don't have enough time for my family or partner.
I often don't have enough time for my friends.
I often don't have enough time for myself.
I often don't have enough time to do my job properly.
I am satisfied with the level of order and cleanliness in my home.
I am satisfied with my current arrangements for combining my private life with a paid job.
The financial responsibility for my family weighs heavily on me.
Taking care of my child(ren) weighs heavily on me.
I am satisfied with the division of labour within my family.

Distribution of domestic work

This part of the questionnaire is about the distribution of domestic work within your family. It is about the people you live with.

If you live alone, it's best to skip these questions. Go to question Q88.

Q84. How often is there a disagreement between family members in your home about the distribution of household work?

- Daily or almost daily
- At least once a week
- At least once a month
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know
- Not applicable

Q85. Who does most of the housework in your home?

- Myself
- It's about equally divided
- My partner
- My mother
- My father
- The children, or one of the children
- The cleaner
- Another family member
- Someone else
- I don't know

Q86. Who in your family decides what needs to be done in the household? This is about who gets what job and how often it should be done.

- Myself
- This is done by mutual agreement
- My partner
- My mother
- My father
- The children, or one of the children
- The cleaner
- Another family member
- Someone else
- I don't know

Q87. Would you like to say anything else about the way work is divided in your family?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Relationship with your partner

This part of the questionnaire is about your relationship with your partner. The questions are about your current partner and your past relationships. Whether you live/lived with your partner or not, is irrelevant here.

If you've never had a relationship before, you should skip this block. Go to question Q95.

Q88. Sometimes things don't go well in a relationship. Have you ever experienced any of the following with your current or former partner? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago?

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know, or doesn't apply	I'd rather not answer
Your partner made you feel bad about yourself.
Your partner called you names.
Your partner humiliated you in front of others.
Your partner prevented you from having contact with your family or friends.
Your partner was constantly checking where you were.
Your partner withheld important information from you.
Your partner made you feel like everything was your fault.
Your partner refused to have sex with you.
Your partner criticised you for the sex you were having.
Your partner criticised you for not wanting to have sex with him/her.
Your partner stole money from you, or ran up debts in your name.
Your partner threw something at you.
Your partner threatened you.
Your partner threatened your child(ren).
Your partner set your child, or the children against you.
Your partner hit you.
Your partner forced you to perform sexual acts you didn't want to perform.
Your partner locked you up, or locked you out.
Your partner tried to kill you.
Anything else that you felt was undesirable.

Anything else you've experienced as undesirable is for you: _____

Q89. Have you ever done any of the following with regard to your current or former partner? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago? Try to answer as honestly as possible.

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know, or doesn't apply	I'd rather not answer
You made your partner feel bad about themselves.
You called your partner names.
You humiliated your partner in front of others.
You prevented your partner from having contact with family or friends.
You were constantly checking where your partner was.
You withheld important information from your partner.
You made your partner feel like everything was their own fault.
You refused to have sex with your partner.
You criticized your partner for the sex you were having.
You criticized your partner for not wanting to have sex with you.
You stole money from your partner, or ran up debts in their name.
You threw something at your partner.
You threatened your partner.
You threatened the child, or the children of your partner.
You set your child, or the children, against your partner.
You hit your partner.
You forced your partner to perform sexual acts they didn't want to perform.
You locked up your partner, or you locked out your partner.
You tried to kill your partner.
Something else your partner probably felt was undesirable.

For you, something else your partner probably felt was undesirable is: _____

Q90. Have you ever felt ashamed of your home situation or relationship?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- I'd rather not answer

Q91. Have you ever felt powerless in your relationship with your partner?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- I'd rather not answer

Q92. Have you ever sought help in a difficult home situation or relationship? Who did you ask for help?

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

- Family
- Friends
- Colleagues
- GP
- A therapist or psychologist
- Someone at the emergency department of the hospital
- A social worker
- A lawyer
- A victim support service, a shelter, or a telephone hotline
- The police
- Someone else, namely _____

- No >> Go to the next block, to question Q95
- Not applicable, because I've never had a difficult home situation or relationship. >> Go to the next block, to question Q95

Q93. Have you ever found understanding and support for a difficult home situation or relationship? Who did you ask for help?

More than one answer is possible. Select all answers that apply to you:

- Family
- Friends
- Colleagues
- GP
- A therapist or psychologist
- Someone at the emergency department of the hospital
- A social worker

- A lawyer
- A victim support service, a shelter, or a telephone hotline
- The police
- Someone else, namely _____

- No

Q94. Would you like to say anything else about difficulties you may have encountered in a relationship or home situation?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Appearance and sexuality

This part of the questionnaire is about how you feel about your appearance and your sexuality.

Your situation

Q95. How satisfied are you with your appearance?

Indicate a number from 0 to 10. '0' stands for not at all and '10' for very much. Indicate the number that suits you best:

Not at all										Completely	I don't know
0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Q96. How satisfied are you with your sex life?

Indicate a number from 0 to 10. '0' stands for not at all and '10' for very much. Indicate the number that suits you best:

Not at all										Completely	I don't know
0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Views

Q97. To what extent do you agree with the following statements? The questions are about your own feelings.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know	I'd rather not answer
You think you're too fat.
Friends can give you unsolicited advice about your clothes.
You think you can tell overweight people to go on a diet.
If someone's too fat, it's their own fault.
People who dress badly are asking to be laughed at.

Q98. To what extent do you agree with the following statements? Your opinion is what matters.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know
It is important that both partners enjoy sex.
No one should ever be forced to have sex.
Good sex is important in life.
Sex without orgasm is bad sex.
It's too hard to hit on someone these days.
Nowadays, almost anything is allowed. That's not good at all.
There is too much emphasis on sexuality in the media.
Sexual violence is not punished enough.
The porn industry promotes violence against women.

Q99. What's your opinion on prostitution? About paying for sex? To what extent do you agree with the following statements? Your opinion is what matters.

	I totally agree	I tend to agree	I tend to disagree	I totally disagree	I don't know
Prostitution is a profession like any other.
Prostitution almost always goes hand in hand with some form of abuse or coercion.
Prostitution should be banned.
Prostitutes should be better protected.
People visiting prostitutes should be fined by the police.
The government must better regulate prostitution in order to prevent abuses.

Experiences

Q100. Are you ever ashamed of your body?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q101. Are you ever ashamed of your sexual desires?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q102. Does sex sometimes feel like an obligation?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q103. Do you sometimes wonder if you're good enough in bed?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q104. Do you ever watch porn with the intention of learning from it?

- Always
- Often
- Occasionally
- Never
- I don't know

Q105. Have you ever experienced any of the following? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago? Whether it happened in a relationship or not is not important here. Try to answer as honestly as possible.

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know
You were pressured to watch porn.
You were pressured into taking a nude picture of yourself, or have one taken.
Someone forwarded a nude photo of you to others, or put it online, against your wishes.
Someone sent you an unsolicited nude picture of themselves.
Someone didn't respect your boundaries.

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know
Someone forced you to have sexual relations against your will (i.e. raped you).
You were pressured to perform other sexual acts (undressing, letting yourself be touched, touching someone, etc.).
Anything else sexual that you experienced as unwanted.

For you, anything else sexual that you experienced as unwanted is: _____

Q106. Have you ever done any of the following things to another person? Was the last time it happened in the last 12 months, or longer ago? Whether it happened in a relationship or not is not important here. Try to answer as honestly as possible.

	Yes, less than a year ago	Yes, more than a year ago	No	I don't know
You pressured someone into watching porn.
You pressured someone into taking a nude picture of themselves, or have one taken.
You sent a nude picture of someone to others, or put it online, against their wishes.
You sent someone an unsolicited nude picture of yourself.
You didn't respect someone's boundaries.
You forced someone to have sexual relations against their will (i.e. raped them).
You put pressure on someone to perform sexual acts (undressing, allowing themselves to be touched, touching you, etc.).
You did something else sexual that was probably undesirable for the other person.

Something else sexual that was probably undesirable for the other person is: _____

Q107. The #MeToo movement is denouncing the impunity of sexual violence. What impact has the #MeToo movement had on you?

More than one answer is possible:

- It has made me stronger.
- It has made me more insecure.
- I have sympathy for the movement, because I have experienced sexual violence myself.
- I have sympathy for the movement, even though I have not experienced any sexual violence myself.
- I don't really feel involved, even though I've experienced sexual violence myself.
- I don't care.
- I've never heard of the #MeToo movement.
- I don't know
- Something else, namely: _____

Q108. Would you like to say anything else about difficulties you may have encountered with appearance, sexuality or sexual violence?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- No

Contacting the police

In this questionnaire, several questions are asked about experiences with forms of violence, such as insults, harassment, sexual harassment or physical violence.

This part of the questionnaire is about deciding to contact the police or not, and how it went on.

To be able to frame the questions correctly, we will again briefly ask about your experiences with violence.

Even if you prefer not to answer these questions, we would still appreciate an answer to question Q109.

Q109. Have you ever experienced any form of violence? This may include insults, harassment, cyberbullying, stalking, sexual violence, being beaten, being threatened, indecent assault, robbery, being locked up, being terrorised, etc.

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to next block of questions, to question Q121
- I don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to next block of questions, to question Q121

Q110. Have you ever on the street or in any other public place experienced someone who wanted to humiliate you as a woman or as a man and therefore called you names, made obscene gestures, became aggressive, or did something else?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q116
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q116

Q111. When you think back to the worst time that happened, did you report it to the police?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115

Q112. How were you treated by them?

- Very good
- Rather well
- Rather poorly
- Very poorly
- I don't know

Q113. Was anything done with your report at the time?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Q114. Can you explain exactly what happened? What incident, or what incidents did you report to the police? How were you treated and what happened to your report?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- I'd rather not say.
- I don't remember.

Q115. Do you remember why you didn't report this to the police?

More than one answer is possible. Indicate all the answers in which you recognise yourself:

I didn't think it was necessary.
I was embarrassed.
I didn't want to feel like a victim.
I'd rather not get in touch with the police.
The police wouldn't have been able to help me anyway.
I didn't want to get anyone in trouble.
It wouldn't have helped anyway.
They never treat people well there.
I didn't have time.
I didn't dare.
I was afraid the perpetrator had ties to the police.
I was afraid the perpetrator would find out and I'd get into even more trouble.
Someone else had already reported the incident to the police.
I had already had negative experiences with a previous report to the police.
I was afraid the police would blame me.
I was afraid nobody would believe me.
Yet another reason.
I don't remember.

Another reason is for you: _____

Questions Q111 to Q115 are repeated for questions Q116 to Q119.

Q116. Has a partner or ex-partner ever treated you aggressively, humiliated you, terrorised you or abused you?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q117
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q117

Q111.b When you think back to the worst time that happened, did you report it to the police?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115.b
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115.b

Q112.b How were you treated by them?

- Very good
- Rather well
- Rather poorly
- Very poorly
- I don't know

Q113.b Was anything done with your report at the time?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Q114.b Can you explain exactly what happened? What incident, or what incidents did you report to the police? How were you treated and what happened to your report?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- I'd rather not say.
- I don't remember.

Q115.b Do you remember why you didn't report this to the police?

More than one answer is possible. Indicate all the answers in which you recognise yourself:

I didn't think it was necessary.
I was embarrassed.
I didn't want to feel like a victim.
I'd rather not get in touch with the police.
The police wouldn't have been able to help me anyway.
I didn't want to get anyone in trouble.
It wouldn't have helped anyway.
They never treat people well there.
I didn't have time.
I didn't dare.
I was afraid the perpetrator had ties to the police.
I was afraid the perpetrator would find out and I'd get into even more trouble.
Someone else had already reported the incident to the police.
I had already had negative experiences with a previous report to the police.
I was afraid the police would blame me.
I was afraid nobody would believe me.
Yet another reason.
I don't remember.

Another reason is for you: _____

Q117. Have you ever experienced sexual violence (unwanted touching, forced sexual acts, forced sex)?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q118
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q118

Q111.c When you think back to the worst time that happened, did you report it to the police?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115.c
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115.c

Q112.c How were you treated by them?

- Very good
- Rather well
- Rather poorly
- Very poorly
- I don't know

Q113.c Was anything done with your report at the time?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Q114.c Can you explain exactly what happened? What incident, or what incidents did you report to the police? How were you treated and what happened to your report?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- I'd rather not say.
- I don't remember.

Q115.c Do you remember why you didn't report this to the police?

More than one answer is possible. Indicate all the answers in which you recognise yourself:

I didn't think it was necessary.
I was embarrassed.
I didn't want to feel like a victim.
I'd rather not get in touch with the police.
The police wouldn't have been able to help me anyway.
I didn't want to get anyone in trouble.
It wouldn't have helped anyway.
They never treat people well there.
I didn't have time.
I didn't dare.
I was afraid the perpetrator had ties to the police.
I was afraid the perpetrator would find out and I'd get into even more trouble.
Someone else had already reported the incident to the police.
I had already had negative experiences with a previous report to the police.
I was afraid the police would blame me.
I was afraid nobody would believe me.

Yet another reason.
I don't remember.

Another reason is for you: _____

Q118. Has anyone ever used social media to hurt or humiliate you as a woman or as a man (cyberbullying)?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q119
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q119

Q111.d When you think back to the worst time that happened, did you report it to the police?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115.d
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115.d

Q112.d How were you treated by them?

- Very good
- Rather well
- Rather poorly
- Very poorly
- I don't know

Q113.d Was anything done with your report at the time?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Q114.d Can you explain exactly what happened? What incident, or what incidents did you report to the police? How were you treated and what happened to your report?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

--

- I'd rather not say.
- I don't remember.

Q115.d Do you remember why you didn't report this to the police?

More than one answer is possible. Indicate all the answers in which you recognise yourself:

I didn't think it was necessary.
I was embarrassed.
I didn't want to feel like a victim.
I'd rather not get in touch with the police.
The police wouldn't have been able to help me anyway.
I didn't want to get anyone in trouble.
It wouldn't have helped anyway.
They never treat people well there.
I didn't have time.
I didn't dare.
I was afraid the perpetrator had ties to the police.
I was afraid the perpetrator would find out and I'd get into even more trouble.
Someone else had already reported the incident to the police.
I had already had negative experiences with a previous report to the police.
I was afraid the police would blame me.
I was afraid nobody would believe me.
Yet another reason.
I don't remember.

Another reason is for you: _____

Q119. Have you ever experienced other forms of violence?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q120
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q120

Q111.e When you think back to the worst time that happened, did you report it to the police?

- Yes
- No >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115
- Don't know >> Skip the following questions, go to question Q115

Q112.e How were you treated by them?

- Very good
- Rather well
- Rather poorly
- Very poorly
- I don't know

Q113.e Was anything done with your report at the time?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Q114.e Can you explain exactly what happened? What incident, or what incidents did you report to the police? How were you treated and what happened to your report?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

- I'd rather not say.
- I don't remember.

Q115.e Do you remember why you didn't report this to the police?

More than one answer is possible. Indicate all the answers in which you recognise yourself:

I didn't think it was necessary.
I was embarrassed.
I didn't want to feel like a victim.
I'd rather not get in touch with the police.
The police wouldn't have been able to help me anyway.
I didn't want to get anyone in trouble.
It wouldn't have helped anyway.
They never treat people well there.
I didn't have time.

I didn't dare.
I was afraid the perpetrator had ties to the police.
I was afraid the perpetrator would find out and I'd get into even more trouble.
Someone else had already reported the incident to the police.
I had already had negative experiences with a previous report to the police.
I was afraid the police would blame me.
I was afraid nobody would believe me.
Yet another reason.
I don't remember.

Another reason is for you: _____

Q120. Would you like to say anything else about your experiences with reporting incidents to the police?

Formulate your answer as clearly as possible.

No

About you

Before we conclude the questionnaire, we would like to know a few things about you. The answers you enter are confidential. They're only used for analysis, not to identify you as a person. Any link to your email address will be removed before the analysis of the data begins.

Q121. What is your health in general?

- Very good
- Good
- Fair (neither good, nor bad)
- Bad
- Very bad
- I don't know

Q122. How do you experience the quality of your life in general?

- Very good
- Good
- Fair (neither good, nor bad)
- Bad
- Very bad
- I don't know

Q123. How easy is it for your family to make ends meet with the monthly family income?

This part is about the people with whom you live and run a household.

- Very easily
- Easily
- Fairly easily
- With some difficulty
- With difficulty
- With great difficult
- I don't know

Q124. What year were you born?

Click on the year in which you were born in the list.

Q125. Are you...

- Female
- Male
- Other
- I'd rather not say.

For you, 'Other' means: _____

Q126. Do you consider yourself a transgender person, or a person with a transgender past?

'Transgender' is used as an umbrella term for all persons who are transgender, non-binary, gender variant, polygender, agender, gender fluid, cross-dresser, transvestite or transsexual.

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- I'd rather not say.

Q127. Do you consider yourself an intersex person, or a person with a variation in sex characteristics?

'Intersex person' is used as an umbrella term for all persons with a variation in physical sex characteristics.

- Yes
- No
- I don't know
- I'd rather not say.

Q128. What is your nationality?

Indicate your nationality. Multiple answers are possible.

- Belgian
- Other: _____

Q129. What's your postcode?

If you don't live in Belgium, or you don't know your postcode, you can enter 0000.

Q130. What's your employment situation?

If you are taking a career break, or taking unpaid leave, indicate your usual work situation.

- Student
- Employee
- Civil servant
- Self-employed
- Independent profession
- Jobseeker
- Retired, or person on a bridging pension
- Sick or unfit for work
- Housewife, or househusband
- Other: _____

Q131. What's your highest degree?

- No diploma or primary education
- Secondary vocational education
- Secondary technical or artistic education
- Secondary general education
- Higher non-university education short type / professional bachelor's
- Higher non-university education long type / master's degree at a university college
- University education or postgraduate education or doctorate
- Other: _____
- I'd rather not say.

Q132. What's your family situation?

- I live alone.
- I live with my partner, with no children.
- I live with my partner and child(ren).
- I live with my child(ren), without a partner.
- I live with with my parents, with either parent, or with family.
- I live with one or more male friends or female girlfriends.
- Other: _____

Q133. How many daughters or stepdaughters do you have?

- None
- One
- Two
- Three or more

Q134. How many sons or stepsons do you have?

- None
- One
- Two
- Three or more

Q135. What is your sexual orientation?

Indicate the answer that suits you best:

- I'm only attracted to women.
- I'm only attracted to men.
- I'm attracted to women and men.
- I don't think sexuality is that important.
- I don't know.
- I'd rather not say.
- Other: _____

Q136. Do you have the feeling that you belong to a minority in Belgium?

More than one answer is possible. Indicate all the answers in which you recognise yourself:

A minority on the basis of:

- Ethnic-cultural origin (having non-Belgian roots)
- Migration background (have ever lived in another country)
- Skin colour
- Sexual orientation (gay, lesbian, bisexual)
- Gender identity or gender expression (being transgender)
- Physical disability or characteristics
- Health status
- Political conviction
- Religion or faith
- Worldview or lifestyle
- Yet another minority
- I do not belong to any of these minorities. >> Skip next question

For you, 'another minority' means: _____

Q137. Have you ever felt that you were considered inferior, or treated less well, because you belonged to this minority or minorities?

Indicate all minorities for which you have ever felt less well treated in Belgium:

Less well treated on the basis of:

- Ethnic-cultural origin (having non-Belgian roots)
- Migration background (have ever lived in another country)

- Skin colour
- Sexual orientation (gay, lesbian, bisexual)
- Gender identity or gender expression (being transgender)
- Physical disability or characteristics
- Health status
- Political conviction
- Religion or faith
- Worldview or lifestyle
- Yet another minority

For you, 'another minority' means: _____

Q138. This survey is an initiative of the Institute for the equality of women and men. Had you ever heard of the Institute for the equality of women and men?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Q139. We've come to the end of our questionnaire. If you have any comments, or if you want to share your experiences, feel free to do so below. Many thanks in advance!

Thank you very much for your participation!

Do not forget to send us your completed questionnaire. You can use the enclosed stamped envelope.

If you would like more information about the Institute for the equality of women and men, or if you would like to report discrimination, you can do so via: igvm-iefh.belgium.be/en

You can also report discrimination by calling the toll-free number 0800 12 800 on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9am to 12pm and on Wednesday afternoons from 1pm to 4pm.

Do you want to have a chance to win one of the vouchers?

Enter your email address here: _____

This e-mail address will only be used to assign the vouchers and will not be retained after the survey has been closed.